

The Black/Brown Dialogues Part II:

Inspiration House Poetry Choir

Curated by Peter J. Harris, artistic director, Inspiration House

Featuring Music & spoken word by:

Peter J. Harris María Elena Gaitán
Gloria Alvarez Tchí konsase Ajé

Saturday, May 3, 2008 7:00 pm

Avenue 50 Studio - 131 North Avenue 50, Los Angeles Ca 90042 (323)258-1435

<http://avenue50studio.com/pages/location1.shtml>

Free To The Public

Commissioned by Kathy Gallegos, Director of Avenue 50 Studio, "The Black/Brown Dialogues" is curated by Peter J. Harris artistic director, Inspiration House, which produces work dedicated to leaving its audiences renewed and recommitted to cultural work that contributes to the creation of a humane society. This event is the second of four Inspiration House PoetryChoir events honoring healthy and ethical cultural dialogue between the African and Latino communities, at Avenue 50 Studio, one of Latino LA's most important independent galleries.

Using the Inspiration House PoetryChoir format, poets read their work while master musicians improvise musical responses to the poetry, blending words, intonations, audience responses, and dynamic silence into a sonic tapestry that's entrancing and exhilarating. The Black/Brown Dialogues are supported in part by the Ford Foundation, JP Morgan Chase, the Andy Warhol Foundation for the Visual Arts and Southwest Airlines through a grant from the NALAC Fund for the Arts